

Tommy Williams

Biography

Hello! My name is Tommy Williams, and I am teaching guitar and Praise Band Experience here at Austin Fine Arts Academy. I am a recording artist, filling my time with writing original songs, playing live, producing original content, and getting the privilege to release songs that the Lord has placed on my heart. I've been leading worship for about six years now, playing a major role in my artistry. I've been playing guitar for roughly ten years, and it plays a major part of my story. Through my ventures with music, I was invited to teach this year, and have been teaching since march. I've loved seeing the passion for music grow in my students, and I can't wait to see how the Lord may use music in your life, as well! I'm looking forward to teaching you the beauty found in the guitar!
